- 3 Minutes of the last meeting – SP proposed and SS seconded acceptable, DW signed and dated
- 4 Matters Arising from the Minutes
 - a. Footpath – NYCC have sent map showing footpath through Well Hall Farm yard and it runs down the hedge line on the right of the yard as you go down. Map to be held on file and copies to go on Parish Noticeboards Action: JH
 - b. Points of interest leaflet discussed Action: JS
 - c. Precept discussed and agreed £1800, proposed by DW and seconded by SP this time as reserves are very low, equates to approx. £3 increase per year on a D Band property Action: JH
- 5 Finance: Accounts spreadsheet circulated, £550.41 available to PC to use, £4144 in the account that is Playing Field money. Change of signatories now all complete – DW, AL & SS
- 6 Correspondence

Hambleton Area Meeting on 12th December

Minerals Plan – next phase coming up, DW talked about concerns – restoration, minimum amount of water left, transport and repair of B6267, weeds (Himalayan Balsam) control of this on land

Email from J Skinner re level of water in the beck and speed limit on Masham Lane. DW said that any suggestions from Parishioners re restoration of water in the beck would be appreciated. Re speed limit on Masham Lane, PC felt that little could be achieved, however a log of incidents should be kept including registration numbers and date of incident to then go to Highways Area 2
- 6 Planning: Garage at Well Hall Farm application rejected, 6 months to appeal. Retro application for The Byre, Church Street Granted along with application from S Lancaster
- 7 Playing Field: No report as no representative present
- 8 Any Other Business
 - a. None
- 9 Date of next meeting – 6th February, 7.00 pm

There being no further business the meeting closed at 7.40 pm
