- 2 Apologies: Chris Wade, Julia Hamby
- 3 Minutes of the last meeting – All agreed acceptable, DW signed and dated
- 4 Matters Arising from the Minutes
 - a. Waste Bin – AL to wash bin/dog bin by the bus shelter. She has also painted out the Dog Waste sign on the bin at the playing field. DW thanked her for doing this
 - b. Footpath – NYCC have sent map showing footpath through Well Hall Farm yard and it runs down the hedgeline on the right of the yard as you go down. Map to be held on file and copies to go on Parish Notice boards Action: JH
 - c. Points of interest leaflet discussed Action: JS
 - d. Precept to be decided at next meeting Action: All
- 5 Finance: Accounts spreadsheet circulated, £1185 available to PC to use, £4144 in the account that is Playing Field money. Change of signatories now in hand (remove Martin Jones and add Sarah Sharp), JH awaiting confirmation from Santander that this has been done Action: JH
- 6 Planning: All except Well Hall Farm appear to be going through. Objections to Gary Elsworth's 'domestic garage'. Question asked if Parish Council would be at the meeting. Chris Wade had said he would go to the meeting, SP said she didn't like the word objections on the planning circulation list, she thought the word comments was fairer. Site visit to Well Hall Farm on Tuesday 11th, Planning Meeting on Thursday afternoon that week. List of bullet points compiled for CW to put forward at the meeting
- 7 Playing Field: Helen Kitching reported £136 raised at a coffee morning. Halloween Party would be the next fundraising event. Nevill's Trust had agreed to match any money raised. New picnic table, strimmer purchased or to be purchased, lawnmower for field still being looked into. A copy of the AGM Minutes of the Playing Field Group was handed over for PC records
- 8 Any Other Business
 - a. Use of Institute for fundraising discussed. AL suggested table top sale as a fundraising activity
- 9 Date of next meeting – 5th December 2016

There being no further business the meeting closed at 7.45 pm
